FEBRUARY 2013
ANNO SOCIETATUS XLVIII

Attention Caerthens!
The Fortress has a magnificent name just like the many magnificent castles that were fortresses throughout Europe. I want to picture a different Fortress, or portion of a fortress each month. Inside I will put a little history of the castle or portion of the castle displayed on our cover.

I ask for your help. If you have a drawing or picture of a castle that you took of a favorite Fortress that you care to share, please fill out the permission form located on the Baronial web site and forward that with the drawing or picture to me at Chronicler@caerthe-sca.org. Please contact me if you have any questions.

YIS,
Jorunn nic Lochlainn

Showcased this month is the fortress called Bran Castle and is it located in Brasov, Romania on the border between Transylvania and Wallachia. It is commonly known as Dracula's Castle, but more than that it is a national monument and landmark to the people of Romania.

This is the FebruaryA.S. XLVIII (2013) issue of THE FORTRESS, published by and for the members of the Barony of Caerthe, SCA, Inc. It is available from the Chronicler. It is not a corporate publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. and does not delineate SCA policies. THE FORTRESS may return any submission that mentions or implies anything illegal. THE FORTRESS may also return any item not in the spirit of the Current Middle Ages such as items not concerning the SCA and/or not of interest to SCA members. Submission deadline is the 15th of the previous month. Internal artwork by THL Wyndylyn is based on registered arms or badges for the various offices, unless otherwise noted. Fortress logo by Jessica Kasper. Please send changes/corrections to chronicler@caerthe-sca.org

OFFICER REPORTS

Seneschals Report

Greetings Unto The Populace of Caerthe,

With a number of changeovers in the officers of Caerthe, many people may find themselves coming to populace meeting when they hadn't before. Additionally, many people who have been coming may sometimes question whether they still should.
While the importance of populace may have changed as more information is exchanged online, it still serves an important function. Too often important topics that are discussed online are lost in the swarm of email that people get. Sometimes the emails have not been cut to remove extraneous threads. Sometimes the email is just no clear and can be easily cleared up in a five minute discussion. Sometimes, so much back and forth occurs that it is unclear as to what was decided. At these times, a populace meeting becomes important.

Populace is where the business of the barony occurs. Financial decisions are made. Event planning occurs. New ideas are brought forth. Also, officers have an opportunity to highlight happenings under their purview. One other aspect that happens at populace is that its a time to socialize (though not during the meeting). We are, afterall, a social organization. Pushing populace to simply online discussion and decision making removes this aspect of our organization. Sure we can have online friends, but they are not the same as those whom we interact with in person.

While certainly there are aspects of populace that seem redundant or that can be pushed online, others cannot. The issue then is how to make populace worthwhile, pertinent, meaningful, interesting, and fruitful. It is not an easy thing to do yet it is worth pursuing.

It remains my honor and privilege to serve as your seneschal.

YIS,
THL Jethro Stille

Minister of Lists Report

During January 2013, there were two tournaments held. The Winterfest tournaments were held on January 9, 2013 for Heavy weapons and on January 10th for Light weapons. There were Heavy fighters and the winner was his Excellency Baron Robert Maggnus. There were light fighters and the winner was Don Hawkril.

On Feburary 1, 2013 the Barony of Caerthe held dinner and a tourney. There were 12 light fighters and the winner was Don Jethro. There were 8 heavy fighters and the winner was His Excellency Baron Robert Maggnus.

I have not heard from any of the cantons this past month.

Done by my hand this 4th day of Feburary, A.S. 48, being 2013 in the common reckoning of years.

Yours in service,
Isabella

As the forest home of the Stag is ever renewed by the sapling, so too are the Outlands enriched by those newly come to the practice of Art and Science. To that end, Yasamin Khatun, Patroness of the Arts, calls upon all artisans of humble station to seek a patron and to present themselves to vie for Her favour at Her Majesty's Prize Tournament. Further, She charges both those who hold a Grant or Patent in their art and the members of the Order of the Rose to seek out and prepare such budding artisans, that they might come without fear to this noble display and company to show the fruits of their study.

Queen's Prize Tournament is a celebration of beginning artisans in the Outlands. While Her Majesty will chose an entry upon which to bestow Her Prize, the purpose of QPT is to share the joy of one's art with others. Entries will not be scored; comments will be available for those who wish feedback.

Anyone holding a rank lower than a Grant in the Arts or Sciences may enter. Each entrant must be sponsored by either an individual who holds a Grant or higher in the Arts or a Lady of the Rose.
Please refer to the Kingdom Arts and Sciences page at kmoas.outlands.org for rules and regulations.
To register, please contact the Competition Coordinator at the email address below with the following information: Title of Entry, Entrant Name, Entrant Email, Sponsor's Name, Sponsor's Email.
Registration of entries will be due on or before February 8th, 2013. Please submit research papers electronically to the Competition Coordinator no later than January 28th, 2013.

Lord Fergus (formerly knows as Lord Ari St. Louis) has returned to duty after a busy year and is looking to assist you with your device and name registrations.

I have made the decision to step down as Seneschal of the Canton after Raven's Faire. Questions about the responsibilities should be directed to me. Letters of Intent should be sent to me, Their Excellencies, and THL Jethro. Letters of Intent will be accepted until February 25. THL Avram, our current Deputy Seneschal has also expressed interest in the position.

Empty offices – Please contact me if you have any interest:

Ravenhyrst Camping Recipes Book – The Canton has decided to undertake the compilation of camping oriented recipes for publication and sale. If you are interested in submitting a recipe, a form will be published to submit them. The cookbook will be available in hard copy or electronic. Recipes should be submitted to Annika by March 30th.

I AM TAKING YOU TO 'T.A.S.C'!

Yes, a play on words. Scolding you for not taking the opportunity to discover the newest addition to our fair Barony, a school for medieval art forms, The Art of Sword and Chivalry, T.A.S.C.

I recently had the pleasure of attending my first night (first visit is free, btw) and saw for myself. I was greeted with smiles from the proprietors, Bill Worth and Deana Conrad known to us as Count Sir Flanagan and Countess Drahomira. T.A.S.C. was also the location for Dinner and a Tourney Friday night, February 1, 2013.

The first night I attended was a Thursday night, Fencing night. A few fencers had already gathered and were donning their armor. Stephanie Williams known to us as Dearbhail inghean Leoid (Jervel) took the opportunity to show Catherine Williams some rapier moves against the pell set up in a fenced (no pun intended) off area. This is a great way to warm up or get instruction.

The site is open Monday through Thursday from 6:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. for training or classes.
Tuesday night reserved for Archery.
Wednesday night reserved for hard suit.
Thursday night reserved for Fencers.

If you have ever had a membership at a health club you can understand the benefits of paying monthly. Where else can you escape that speaks directly to our love of the medieval art form! I have posted pictures of the site for those of you who have not taken the opportunity to explore yourself.

Bill and Deana in the office and store located on site. You can buy any number of things here, including duct tape and armor. Pick up or drop off business cards.

Need a break from the arduous workout? Step into the break room and if you forgot your water, buy a refreshing drink from the onsite vending machine.

If some piece of armor breaks in the heat of battle, step over to the onsite workshop to do a quick fix then step back into the battle before it has a chance to cool off

Continued…

Don’t wear armor, fence or draw a bow? Well, they have that covered too! Bring your favorite art project and friends and use either of the two rooms in the back away from the clash and bang of the fighting. Good place to get together with friends!

a MBI a N c e!

Fighting Galore!!

Dinner and a Tourney with our beloved Baron and Baroness.

Smiles, costumes and friendly people!!!

Please read the TASC information in this article that best sums up all that it offers.
Hope you enjoyed the pictures! I certainly enjoyed taking them.

Come join the Caerthen Cooks' Guild on Sunday, March 3, as we celebrate Butter Week (Maslenitsa). In the Orthodox calendar, this is the time to eat and enjoy dairy foods and foods made with butter, milk, eggs and cheese—all of these being forbidden during Lent (Orthodox Lent begins March 18). The traditional food includes pancakes (blini), served with a variety of toppings (sour cream, or caviar, or jam, or applesauce, or….)

Bring something to share, or just bring yourself. We'll be making blini, so wear something washable. Garb or modern clothing welcome.
